Great open space in the Doral's kitchen-family room means the cook shares the fun when family and friends gather. For those important, "more formal" occasions, a separate dining room and living room flank the foyer. The Doral's plan is so versatile that either of these two rooms could be reconfigured as a game room, study or home office without even altering the plan! On the second floor a wonderful master suite with double sinks, a soaking tub, separate shower and secluded toilet make it easy for two to share the space. The large walk-in closet offers ample space for two sets of clothes as well. Two more bedrooms with nice closets and another full bath complete the second floor. There's also room for a finished basement, by adding a game room, home theater or workshop. Quality, versatility and charm combine nicely in the Doral.
